Non-life: Maintaining our good position through controlled profitable growth

Our non-life markets have become more competitive - nevertheless, Helvetia is able to maintain its good position and profitability in non-life based on:

- ▶ Diversified business and geographical market portfolio
- ▶ Focusing on well established sales channels with close proximity to our end customers
- ▶ Above average client retention and controlled increase of distribution capacity
- ▶ Further increase of efficiency and use of group synergies

Conclusion: Helvetia's business configuration offers important levers for value creation

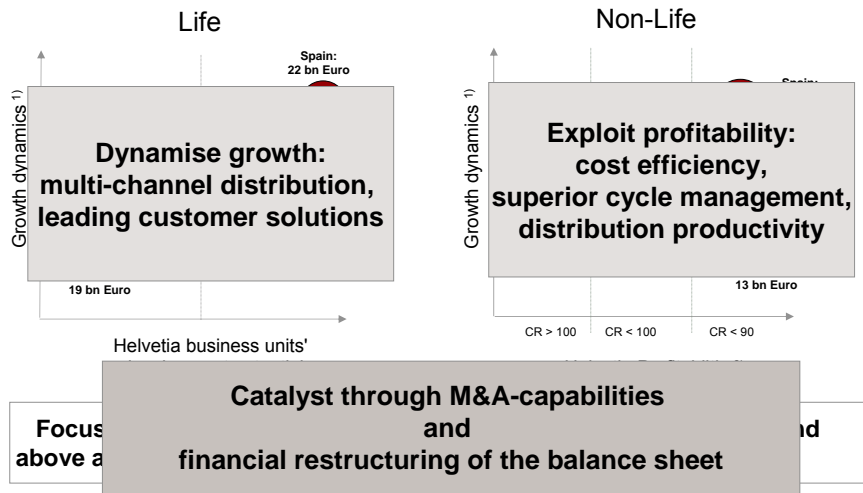

Focus on profitable growth and above average new business value

Focus on profitability and cashflow generation

Helvetia doubles premium volume in Italy

- Helvetia is taking over the majority interest in the «Chiara Vita S.p.A.» insurance company from «Banco di Desio e della Brianza S.p.A.»
- «Banco di Desio e della Brianza S.p.A.» will sell the insurance products exclusively via its approximately 150 bank counters in northern and central Italy
- The purchased Chiara Vita portfolio generated a premium volume of about EUR 320 in 2007
 - exclusive, long-term sales agreement
 - dramatically strengthen Helvetia's existing position in Italian life insurance market.
- Subject to the relevant cartel and statutory insurance authorisations, the deal should be concluded in end 2008

Chiara Vita offers strong growth potential

- Chiara Vita offers a Sales cooperation and partnership with a long-term perspective in Italy:
- opened up strategic market access
- opportunity of selling life insurance via the banking channel in the future
- portfolio mix:
 - 1/3 traditional life products
 - 1/3 Unit-linked
 - 1/3 Index-linked
- Helvetia Italy intends to complement the traditionally strong position in the area of non-life insurance with an equally strong set-up in life insurance.
