* after income tax paid

EMEA: Strong OE and aftermarket business

Sales (in EUR million)

- FY 2021 sales adjusted for FX effects: + 33.8%
- Strong OE and aftermarket business
- German and Turkish plants highly utilised during the year and fully loaded in Q4
- Strong trailer OE and aftermarket business drove sales in Q4

Adjusted EBIT (in EUR million and % of sales)

- Spike in steel prices, high freight rates and energy costs headwind on gross profit
- Adjusted selling expenses to sales ratio improved from 6.2% to 4.8%
- Despite strong cost headwind, FY adjusted EBIT margin of 9.2% nearly on prior year level
- Due to time lag in passing on cost increases, margin pressure in OE business in Q4

Americas: Strong truck OE and aftermarket business

Sales (in EUR million)

- FY 2021 sales adjusted for FX effects: + 25.0%
- FY sales growth driven by strong truck OE and aftermarket business
- Trailer OE business showed strong sales performance in the course of the year
- Q4 sales driven by very strong trailer OE business as well as strong aftermarket business

Adjusted EBIT (in EUR million and % of sales)

- Steel prices, high freight rates and energy costs significantly up
- FY adjusted admin expenses ratio improved from 6.4% to 4.6%
- Despite strong cost headwind, FY adjusted EBIT margin up to 6.0%
- Q4 margin increase y-o-y primarily driven by FORWARD 2.0 achievements and strong aftermarket business

APAC: Strong demand in India and Australia

Sales (in EUR million)

- FY 2021 sales adjusted for FX effects: +47.9%
- FY sales growth driven by strong OE business in India and favourable demand growth in Australia
- China business still subdued
- Q4 sales driven by strong trailer OE business

Adjusted EBIT (in EUR million and % of sales)

- Compared to the high sales growth adjusted cost of sales in 2021 grew underproportionally y-o-y by only 37.8%
- FY adjusted admin expenses to sales ratio improved from 9.5% to 6.6%
- Major driver for significant increase in FY adjusted EBIT margin is strong business development in India and Australia
- Development of Q4 margin y-o-y positive, however impacted by subdued China business

Sales growth driven by high demand both in OE and aftermarket business

Sources: Market data (Nov 2021-Jan 2022) for trucks and trailers based on IHS Markit, ACT Research, CLEAR, ANFAVEA, ANFIR

- EMEA

- Bullish market on an all-time high level
- Back to more normal growth trajectory in 2022
- Expect markets to strongly grow in the years to follow

- North America

- Expect truck production to be still impacted by supply shortages which could gradually diminish towards the end of 2022 / beginning of 2023
- Challenge for trailer OEMs to further ramp up production continues although staffing and supply chain issues seem to improve slightly

- Brazil

- Infrastructure projects including focus on e-mobility

- China

- Markets expected to be still subdued in 2022

- India

- Trailer expected to further increase significantly
- Large infrastructure and investment projects drive growth in coming years

Volatility of cost base mainly driven by material prices and freight costs

Major cost items

Material

Trend 2022

Steel:

- In the US still on a very high level
- EMEA remain on a high level

Supply chain disruptions started to slightly ease, but still constraint

Labour

Up due to inflation, increase in minimum wages and additional headcount

Freight

Freight rates remain on a very high level

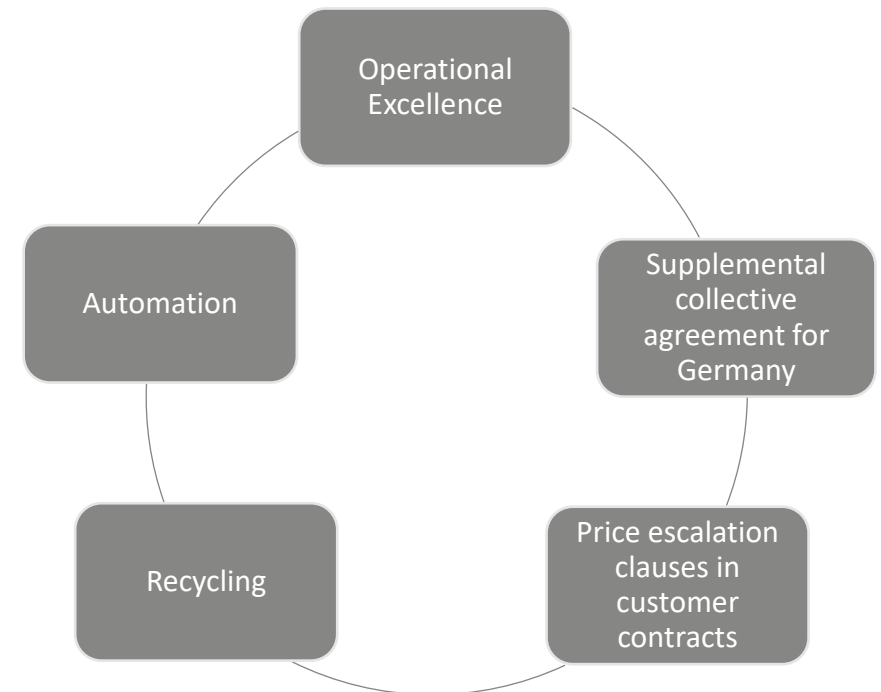

Depreciation

Planned depreciation slightly up driven by capacity expansions

Negative impact of Russia-Ukraine war on economic development, steel, energy and freight costs as well as supply chain disruptions currently not predictable.

Measures to counter cost increases on all levels
