GUIDANCE CONFIRMED DESPITE SOFTENING MARKET

Q2 reporting topped our expectations and overall performance was led by another period of good organic growth (+18%) that kept pace with the Q1 KPI as well as currency (Fx) effects. Turnover climbed some 37% year on year to €78m, while earnings grew at a similar clip. MGI also hosted its Capital Markets Day (CMD) and provided a look under the operational hood that included a compelling presentation by the Dataseat boss on how his business predicted and is now succeeding in a post-identifier digital advertising world. MGI is tracking well towards confirmed guidance (17% to 25% growth) after a solid Q2 in which it outperformed many rivals in a slowing market with shrinking advertising budgets. We remain Buy-rated on MGI with a €4.4 target price.

MG outperforms in softening market Q2 was spurred by 18% organic sales growth (OSG). Operations were able to overcome market headwinds already evident in Q2 that broadly hurt other digital advertising operators. Profitability remained high (AEBITDA margin 26% vs 25% Q1/21), and net operating cash flow nearly trebled Y/Y to €21m. H1 net debt climbed to €299m vs €199m a YE21 occasioned in part by the final earn-out payments for the KingsIsle acquisition. The leverage ratio stood at 3.7x (YE21: 2.8x) but does not yet reflect the full T12 EBITDA contributions of AxesInMotion or Smaato. Over the midterm, MGI wants to de-lever and compress the ratio < 3.0x.

2022 guidance and midterm targets confirmed Management sounded a cautious note in its Q2 report, acknowledging that a recession could impact the growth of the business. In July, we dialled down 2023 FBE to anticipate a slowdown in global ad-spend. Despite flagging demand, MGI confirmed 2022 guidance. Confidence in a solid H2 stems from: (1) MGI's contextual targeting tools that help advertisers in a post-identifier world; (2) a portfolio of premium MMO (massively multiplayer online) games, which are resilient to economic downturns—we play games when we are feeling rich or poor; and (3) the ability to harness and leverage synergies from prior acquisitions (AxesInMotion and Dataseat). DATASEAT HIGHLIGHTS CMD

MGI acquired Dataseat in July to gain access to the start-up's AI-driven non-identifier platform capabilities for mobile gaming and non-gaming companies and leverage their technology with MGI's existing platforms.

Dataseat CEO and co-founder David Philippon presented his company at the Capital Markets Day and helped demystify the post-identifier world. In April 2021, Apple put an end to advertisers' digital snooping with the rollout of its iOS14.5 update, which caught many ad-tech operators completely unprepared.

Back to the way advertising used to be Before Apple's disruption digital advertising was a "whoever has the most data wins" game that tech giants such as Facebook thrived on. Impressively, Dataseat actually anticipated back in 2018 that Apple would limit identifiers in its App store and that IDFA would eventually disappear. This theory kicked off the start-up's technology journey to develop solutions that rely on AI to optimise campaigns by fully using contextual signals and thus eliminate the need for third-party identifiers.

Dataseat's technology can learn how an advertiser performs best on a specific publisher, on which particular day of the week and time of day, with which creative content, while also factoring in other variables, such as device type and operating system. These tools are more reminiscent of traditional advertising and will grow in importance with Google set to follow Apple's lead in prioritising privacy. Moreover, Apple is expected early next year to enforce a ban on probabilistic attribution (fingerprinting), a process used to link users to certain mobile marketing campaigns.

We reckon Dataseat's toolbox gives MGI a robust workaround for the changing ad-tech landscape. Although the gaming market was the initial focus for Dataseat, their technology is scalable across almost all TAMs. Joining the MGI mother ship was the logical strategic step for the start-up, which needed to scale globally and quickly to exploit its technology advantages.

Profitability remains stable The 37% year-on-year revenue growth was spurred by 18% OSG with both of MGI's reconstituted segments (table 2 overleaf) contributing to the topline growth. After the sequential decline in Q1 sales owing to seasonality effects, turnover rose ~18% Q/Q and nearly matched the Q4 level that is normally supercharged by the holiday season (figure 1). On a six month basis, sales were up 32% on the prior year. Seasonal effects should also provide a boost to H2/22 and partially offset flagging market demand, while propelling the company towards its YE targets (table 5 overleaf).

AEBITDA tallied €21.1m for the three month period (+38% Y/Y) and slightly outpaced revenue growth. On a non-adjusted basis, EBITDA, including one-off and ESOP costs, totalled €20m (+38%). On a six month basis, AEBITDA was up 34% on the prior year to €39m. MGI was able to sustain its AEBITDA margin year on year. Currency effects (USD/EUR) on the topline were largely offset by a predominately US Dollar denominated cost structure.

Balance sheet update Cash and equivalents tallied €125m as of the end of Q2 (YE21: €189m). The decline was occasioned by the final earn-out and deferred purchase price payments in conjunction with the KingsIsle acquisition plus the initial purchase price payment for AxesInMotion.

Net debt totalled €299m at the end of June. The leverage ratio stood at 3.7x but this is somewhat overstated since it only includes ten months of Smaato and two months of AiM EBITDA in the calculation. The company wants to compress the leverage ratio to < 3.0x over the midterm with free cash flows and other de-leveraging options. The ICR was a still comfortable 3.9x at the end of H1. We also note that earn-out liabilities will decline if the recession impacts the earnings of its acquired companies.

Net working capital dips to 16% of sales Net operating cash flow was also boosted by lower net working capital consumption in Q2 (YE21: 19% of sales). The company expects this trend to continue in the coming quarters and help improve the leverage ratio.

Sticking to Buy rating and €4.4 target price Management's confidence in confirmed 2022 guidance stems from: (1) its toolbox of contextual targeting that helps advertisers in a post-identifiers world; (2) a portfolio of premium MMO games, which are resilient to economic downturn and sometimes even prosper—we play games when we are feeling rich or poor; and (3) the ability to harness and leverage synergies from prior acquisitions (AxesInMotion and Datasat).

Over the midterm, MGI still targets a 25% to 30% revenue CAGR with a 25% to 30% AEBITDA margin and 15% to 20% AEBIT margin, while keeping the leverage ratio between 2x and 3x.

INFORMATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 85 (1) SENTENCE 1 OF THE GERMAN SECURITIES TRADING ACT [WPHG], TO ART. 20 (1) OF REGULATION (EU) NO 596/2014 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL OF APRIL 16, 2014, ON MARKET ABUSE (MARKET ABUSE REGULATION) AND TO ART. 37 OF COMMISSION DELEGATED REGULATION (EU) NO 2017/565 (MIFID) II.

First Berlin Equity Research GmbH (hereinafter referred to as: "First Berlin") prepares financial analyses while taking the relevant regulatory provisions, in particular section 85 (1) sentence 1 of the German Securities Trading Act [WpHG], art. 20 (1) of Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of April 16, 2014, on market abuse (market abuse regulation) and art. 37 of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) no. 2017/565 (MiFID II) into consideration. In the following First Berlin provides investors with information about the statutory provisions that are to be observed in the preparation of financial analyses.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

In accordance with art. 37 (1) of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) no. 2017/565 (MiFID) II and art. 20 (1) of Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of April 16, 2014, on market abuse (market abuse regulation) investment firms which produce, or arrange for the production of, investment research that is intended or likely to be subsequently disseminated to clients of the firm or to the public, under their own responsibility or that of a member of their group, shall ensure the implementation of all the measures set forth in accordance with Article 34 (2) lit. (b) of Regulation (EU) 2017/565 in relation to the financial analysts involved in the production of the investment research and other relevant persons whose responsibilities or business interests may conflict with the interests of the persons to whom the investment research is disseminated. In accordance with art. 34 (3) of Regulation (EU) 2017/565 the procedures and measures referred to in paragraph 2 lit. (b) of such article shall be designed to ensure that relevant persons engaged in different business activities involving a conflict of interests carry on those activities at a level of independence appropriate to the size and activities of the investment firm and of the group to which it belongs, and to the risk of damage to the interests of clients.

In addition, First Berlin shall pursuant to Article 5 of the Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2016/958 disclose in their recommendations all relationships and circumstances that may reasonably be expected to impair the objectivity of the financial analyses, including interests or conflicts of interest, on their part or on the part of any natural or legal person working for them under a contract, including a contract of employment, or otherwise, who was involved in producing financial analyses, concerning any financial instrument or the issuer to which the recommendation directly or indirectly relates.

The analyst is not subject to any restrictions with regard to his recommendation and is therefore independent, so that we believe there is no conflict of interest.

With regard to the financial analyses of Media and Games Invest SE the following of the aforementioned potential conflicts of interests or the potential conflicts of interest mentioned in Article 6 paragraph 1 of the Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2016/958 exist: The author, First Berlin, or a company associated with First Berlin reached an agreement with the Media and Games Invest SE for preparation of a financial analysis for which remuneration is owed.

In order to avoid and, if necessary, manage possible conflicts of interest both the author of the financial analysis and First Berlin shall be obliged to neither hold nor in any way trade the securities of the company analyzed. The remuneration of the author of the financial analysis stands in no direct or indirect connection with the recommendations or opinions represented in the financial analysis. Furthermore, the remuneration of the author of the financial analysis is neither coupled directly to financial transactions nor to stock exchange trading volume or asset management fees.

INFORMATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 64 OF THE GERMAN SECURITIES TRADING ACT [WPHG], DIRECTIVE 2014/65/EU OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL OF 15 MAY 2014 ON MARKETS IN FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND AMENDING DIRECTIVE 2002/92/EC AND DIRECTIVE 2011/61/EU, ACCOMPANIED BY THE MARKETS IN FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS REGULATION (MIFIR, REG. ASSET VALUATION SYSTEM

First Berlin's system for asset valuation is divided into an asset recommendation and a risk assessment.

ASSET RECOMMENDATION

The recommendations determined in accordance with the share price trend anticipated by First Berlin in the respectively indicated investment period are as follows:

Category		1	2
Current market capitalisation (in €)		0 - 2 billion	> 2 billion
Strong Buy ¹	An expected favourable price trend of:	> 50%	> 30%
Buy	An expected favourable price trend of:	> 25%	> 15%
Add	An expected favourable price trend of:	0% to 25%	0% to 15%
Reduce	An expected negative price trend of:	0% to -15%	0% to -10%
Sell	An expected negative price trend of:	< -15%	< -10%

Our recommendation system places each company into one of two market capitalisation categories. Category 1 companies have a market capitalisation of €0 – €2 billion, and Category 2 companies have a market capitalisation of > €2 billion. The expected return thresholds underlying our recommendation system are lower for Category 2 companies than for Category 1 companies. This reflects the generally lower level of risk associated with higher market capitalisation companies.

RISK ASSESSMENT

The First Berlin categories for risk assessment are low, average, high and speculative. They are determined by ten factors: Corporate governance, quality of earnings, management strength, balance sheet and financial risk, competitive position, standard of financial disclosure, regulatory and political uncertainty, strength of brandname, market capitalisation and free float. These risk factors are incorporated into the First Berlin valuation models and are thus included in the target prices. First Berlin customers may request the models.
