(1) Chimera Investment Corporation ("CIM") is a real estate investment trust ("REIT") within the meaning of Sections 856 through 860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Code"). In accordance with the Code, dividends declared by a REIT in October, November or December of any year with a record date in one of these months, but which are actually paid in January of the following year, are treated as having been paid on December 31 of the year in which the dividend was declared to the extent of the REIT's distributable earnings and profits. The fourth quarter 2022 common stock distribution payable January 31, 2023 to common stockholders of record on December 30, 2022 is treated as received by such common stockholders in 2023.

(2) "Qualified Dividends" are the portion of the amount reported as "Ordinary Dividends" that may be eligible for reduced capital gains rates.

Shareholders should review the tax statements received from their brokerage firms, transfer agents or other institutions to confirm the information reported in those statements conforms to the information reported here. Shareholders should consult their tax advisors to determine their tax treatment of any distributions received from CIM.
