Neubiberg, Germany, 3 August 2021 – Today, Infineon Technologies AG is reporting results for the third quarter of the 2021 fiscal year (period ended 30 June 2021).

“Demand for semiconductors is unbroken, as they play a key role in enabling the energy transition and digitalization. Currently, however, the market is faced with an extremely tight supply situation,” said Dr. Reinhard Ploss, CEO of Infineon.

"Inventories are at a historic low; our chips are being shipped from our fabs straight into the end applications. Under these circumstances, any pandemic-related restrictions on manufacturing, such as those recently imposed in Malaysia, are especially grave. We are doing our utmost to improve matters along the entire value chain and are working as flexibly as possible in the best interests of our customers. At the same time, we are continuously building up additional capacity."

Group performance in third quarter of 2021 fiscal year

In the third quarter of the current fiscal year, Group revenue rose by €22 million to €2,722 million, compared to €2,700 million in the preceding three-month period. Despite continued strong demand, revenue grew by only 1 percent due to pandemic-related constraints on our manufacturing capacity in Melaka, Malaysia, and the aftermath of the winter storm in Austin, Texas. These various factors have primarily affected the Automotive (ATV) and Power & Sensor Systems (PSS) segments, both of which saw a decline in revenue compared to the previous quarter. By contrast, the Industrial Power Control (IPC) and Connected Secure Systems (CSS) segments recorded revenue growth.

The gross margin improved significantly from 36.0 percent to 39.1 percent quarter-on-quarter. The adjusted gross margin for the three-month period under report came in at 41.8 percent, up from 39.3 percent in the preceding quarter.

The Segment Result increased from €470 million to €496 million quarter-on-quarter, with the Segment Result Margin rising from 17.4 percent to 18.2 percent.

The non-segment result for the third quarter was a net loss of €149 million, compared to a net loss of €156 million in the previous three-month period. The non-segment result for the quarter included €74 million of cost of goods sold, €60 million of selling, general and administrative expenses and €6 million of research and development expenses. Net other operating expenses amounting to €9 million were also recorded in the third quarter.

Operating income for the third quarter of the current fiscal year rose to €347 million, compared with €314 million in the preceding three-month period.

The financial result amounted to minus €56 million compared with minus €42 million in the previous quarter.

The tax expense added up to €49 million, down from €62 million one quarter earlier.

Income from continuing operations improved from €209 million to €245 million quarter-on-quarter. Income from discontinued operations in the third quarter was break-even, compared to a loss of €6 million in the previous three-month period. Accordingly, net income for the third quarter of the current fiscal year also amounted to €245 million, compared with €203 million one quarter earlier.

Earnings per share from continuing operations increased to €0.18 (basic and diluted), compared to €0.15 in the preceding three-month period. Adjusted earnings per share¹ (diluted) improved from €0.24 to €0.27 quarter-on-quarter.

Investments – which Infineon defines as the sum of purchases of property, plant and equipment, purchases of other intangible assets and capitalized development costs – totaled €285 million in the third quarter of the 2021 fiscal year, compared with €332 million in the preceding three-month period. Depreciation and amortization increased from €368 million to €380 million quarter-on-quarter.

¹ Adjusted net income and adjusted earnings per share (diluted) should not be seen as a replacement or superior performance indicator, but rather as additional information to the net income and earnings per share (diluted) determined in accordance with IFRS. Free cash flow² continued to improve in the third quarter of the current fiscal year, rising to €477 million, compared with €407 million in the previous quarter. Net cash provided by operating activities from continuing operations went up from €742 million to €762 million.

At the end of the third quarter, the gross cash position stood at €3,863 million, up from €3,444 million at 31 March 2021. Net debt decreased further from €3,415 million to €2,945 million over the course of the three-month period. Gross debt amounted to €6,808 million at the end of the third quarter, compared with €6,859 million at 31 March 2021.

Outlook for the fourth quarter of the 2021 fiscal year

Based on an assumed exchange rate of US$1.20 to the euro, Infineon expects to generate revenue of around €2.9 billion in the fourth quarter of the 2021 fiscal year. While demand is rising at a dynamic pace, the overall supply situation remains tight due to various factors, including the pandemic-related manufacturing restrictions in Melaka, Malaysia, at the beginning of the quarter. In light of ongoing bottlenecks, revenue generated by the ATV and IPC segments is likely to remain at a similar level to the previous quarter. The CSS segment is forecast to record a slightly higher level of revenue. PSS segment revenue is set to rise sharply, mainly due to the recovery of demand for smartphones. At the level of revenue currently forecast, the Segment Result Margin is expected to come in at about 19 percent.

Outlook for the 2021 fiscal year

Based on the predicted level of revenue for the fourth quarter and an assumed unchanged exchange rate of US$1.20 to the euro, revenue is expected to total around €11 billion for the full 2021 fiscal year. At this level, the Segment Result Margin is forecast to come in at above 18 percent.

Investments in property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and capitalized development costs for the 2021 fiscal year are forecast at an unchanged level of around €1.6 billion. Depreciation and amortization are also expected to remain unchanged at between €1.5 billion and €1.6 billion, of which approximately €500 million is attributable to depreciation and amortization from purchase price allocations arising mainly in connection with the acquisition of Cypress and to a lesser extent with the acquisition of International Rectifier. Free cash flow is now anticipated to come in at around €1.5 billion.

Besides geopolitical and macroeconomic factors, the economic disruption caused by the coronavirus pandemic makes accurate prediction difficult. Key factors influencing the expected development of revenue and earnings during the pandemic will be the progression of global infection rates over time, the progress of vaccination campaigns, possible restrictions on economic activities, effects on production and supply chains, and the level and effectiveness of governmental stimulus programs.

ATV segment revenue totaled €1,205 million in the third quarter of the current fiscal year, compared to €1,219 million in the preceding three-month period. Held down by restricted manufacturing capacities, revenue dropped slightly by 1 percent, while demand continued to rise across all product areas. The Segment Result edged up from €197 million to €199 million quarter-on-quarter, whereas the Segment Result Margin improved from 16.2 percent to 16.5 percent.

IPC segment revenue significantly rose from €361 million to €412 million quarter-on-quarter, with all product areas contributing to the 14 percent growth. Demand was particularly dynamic for products relating to industrial drives and renewable energy. The Segment Result improved from €59 million to €82 million quarter-on-quarter, with the Segment Result Margin rising from 16.3 percent to 19.9 percent.

PSS segment revenue amounted to €757 million in the third quarter, down from €787 million in the preceding three-month period, whereby the 4 percent decline was mainly attributable to temporary weaker business with components for smartphones as well as restrictions in manufacturing capacities. Revenue generated with server-related products increased slightly, while business with battery-powered applications also continued to thrive. The Segment Result for the third quarter of the current fiscal year amounted to €167 million, compared to €184 million in the previous quarter; the Segment Result Margin fell from 23.4 percent to 22.1 percent.

CSS segment revenue increased from €329 million to €346 million quarter-on-quarter. The 5 percent growth in revenue was primarily due to the upturn in demand for government ID products and rising levels of business with microcontrollers and connectivity-related products as a result of slight improvements in external manufacturing capacity available in these areas. The Segment Result improved from €30 million to €47 million quarter-on-quarter, with the Segment Result Margin rising from 9.1 percent to 13.6 percent.

Segment Revenues and Segment Results

Segment Result is defined as operating income (loss) excluding certain impairment losses (such as in particular impairment losses on goodwill), impact on earnings of restructuring and closures, share-based compensation, acquisition-related depreciation/amortization and other expenses, gains (losses) on sales of businesses, or interests in subsidiaries and other income (expense), including litigation costs.

Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows

Gross and Net Cash Position

The following table reconciles the gross cash position and net cash position (i.e. after deduction of financial debt). Since some liquid funds are held in the form of financial investments, which, for IFRS purposes are not considered to be “cash and cash equivalents”, Infineon reports on its gross and net cash positions in order to provide investors with a better understanding of Infineon’s overall liquidity. The gross and net cash positions are determined as follows from the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position:

€ in millions	30 Jun 21	31 Mar 21	30 Jun 20
Cash and cash equivalents	1,920	1,873	2,449
Financial investments	1,943	1,571	1,001
Gross cash position	3,863	3,444	3,450
Less:
Short-term financial debt and current portion of long-term financial debt	825	831	586
Long-term financial debt	5,983	6,028	7,160
Total financial debt	6,808	6,859	7,746
Net cash position	(2,945)	(3,415)	(4,296)

Free Cash Flow

Infineon reports the free cash flow figure defined as net cash provided by and/or used in operating activities and net cash provided by and/or used in investing activities, both from continuing operations, after adjusting for cash flows related to the purchase and sale of financial investments. Free cash flow serves as an additional performance indicator, since Infineon holds part of its liquidity in the form of financial investments. This does not mean that the free cash flow calculated in this way is available to cover other disbursements, since dividend, debt-servicing obligations and other fixed disbursements are not deducted. Free cash flow should not be seen as a replacement or superior performance indicator, but rather as an additional useful piece of information over and above the disclosure of the cash flow reported in the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows, and as a supplementary disclosure to other liquidity performance indicators and other performance indicators derived from the IFRS figures. Free cash flow includes only amounts from continuing operations, and is derived as follows from the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows:

€ in millions	3 months ended			9 months ended
	30 Jun 21	31 Mar 21	30 Jun 20	30 Jun 21	30 Jun 20

DISCLAIMER

The Consolidated Statement of Financial Position, the Consolidated Statement of Income and the (condensed) Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows have been prepared in accordance with IAS 34, "Interim Financial Reporting". The disclosures required by IAS 34 are not made.

The same accounting policies are applied as in the most recently published consolidated financial statements. An exception to this principle is the application of new and revised standards and interpretations that have become effective during the year.

The Quarterly Group Statement is prepared in accordance with the Frankfurt Stock Exchange's stock exchange regulation 53 paragraph.

This press release contains forward-looking statements about the business, financial condition and earnings performance of the Infineon Group. These statements are based on assumptions and projections resting upon currently available information and present estimates. They are subject to a multitude of uncertainties and risks. Actual business development may therefore differ materially from what has been expected. Beyond disclosure requirements stipulated by law, Infineon does not undertake any obligation to update forward-looking statements.

Due to rounding, numbers presented throughout this press release and other reports may not add up precisely to the totals provided and percentages may not precisely reflect the absolute figures.

All figures mentioned in this press release are unaudited.
