

Verification of Clean Development Mechanism project

The first methane capture plant, which was commissioned on 1 April 2012, has met all of the requirements to qualify as a small scale project under the United Nations Framework on Climate Change (UNFCCC) Clean Development Mechanism. Carbon credits will be accrued from 1 June 2012, depending on the level of Greenhouse Gas (GHG) emissions achieved. Read more about REA's Carbon Footprint

Saturday, June 30, 2012